

Corvus Landing Wedding Flowers

Thank you for considering Corvus Landing flowers for your wedding! It would be a joy and an honor to participate in your wedding celebration. Arranging flowers with your friends and family is a beautiful way to spend time together in the build-up to a wedding, and I love providing the materials to bring you together. Or let me do the work of arranging, while you focus on your guests.

I provide DIY bulk blooms and a la carte wedding florals directly from our farm in Neskowin. All flowers are custom picked for your wedding. They are grown using organic methods and are never sprayed. Note that I am not a full-service florist and I do not offer any set up, installation, or break down services. Design services are limited to the individual items purchased from the farm.

DIY Bulk Wedding Flowers

Bulk blooms are chosen by the farmer, and I pride myself on selecting a mix of flowers that will lead to successful and fun arranging. I will talk with you about your color and flower preferences ahead of time and put together a selection of the best blooms available on the farm at the time of your wedding. Buckets contain 80-90 stems, with a mix of focal, filler, and foliage in your preferred color palette.

What you can make from each bucket depends on your design style, the fullness of your arrangements, and what kind of vessel you use. For planning purposes, expect that each bucket is enough for 5-7 mason jar arrangements, 1-2 larger altar arrangements, or 1-2 hand held bouquets (bridal, bridesmaid).

Pricing:

- $80 per bucket, 2 bucket minimum.
- Extra buckets of greenery: $60 (Stem count varies; greenery frequently is harvested in larger branches that can be broken down for use in multiple florals)
- Extra bunches of individual blooms or greenery may be available upon request, depending on season and availability (eg, extra dahlias, extra filler, etc). Price varies but typically around $1 per stem.

A la Carte Wedding Florals

I love nothing more than using my flowers to make beautiful bouquets, wearables, and centerpieces. Let me take care of the fiddlier pieces while you have fun arranging centerpieces with friends and family!
